Kenmore adds bright smiles and friendly voices to staff

Kenmore, Wash. – The City of Kenmore is pleased to announce the appointment of two new employees.

Kathleen Hicks joins the City as a full-time office assistant after spending more than four months as the temporary office assistant. Hicks has over 12 years of experience in the administrative field. At previous jobs, she has been responsible for directing inquiries to the appropriate department, writing and editing communications, and the organization and maintenance of the front office.

Nicole Himmelman joins the City as an office assistant for the engineering and public works department. Himmelman has over five years of experience in the administrative field performing customer service, general bookkeeping duties and office organization.

“We are excited that Kathleen and Nicole have recently joined our team of staff,” said City Clerk Lynn Batchelor. “Not only are they well-qualified, they both bring positive attitudes and an eagerness to take on new challenges.”
